

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my objections to FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

In a confined area such as a plane where you might find annoying or discourteous acts of your fellow passengers, there is no where to get away from them except the tiny restroom. That list of annoying acts is already lengthy. Let's not add to it by allowing phone conversations. Those passengers who would like a reasonable level of noise should have a right to it. The introduction of cell phone use in the cabin will not only increase tension among passengers, it will compromise flight attendants' ability to maintain order in an emergency. Cell phone use could also enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

Don't fix what is not broken. Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Nancy Choy
